

For the sake of maintaining decmocratic discourse at a time when it is most desperatley needed, I urge you not to repeal existing legislation prohibiting single-company ownership of both television and newspaper media outlets in the same local areas.

Sincerely,

Michael M. Ford